

Ocean Alliance & Trident Gallery

PRESENT

Down to the Sea in Ships

a piece for strings and narrator

by Robert J. Bradshaw

featuring a movement score by Sarah Slifer Swift the story of George Pollard, captain of the whaleship Essex, whose travails inspired the novel Moby-Dick

Beauport Chamber Players

Luke Miller, Violin Steve Smith, Cello
D. Scott Hufford, Violin Bruno Raberg, Bass
Nathan Cohen, Viola Robert J. Bradshaw, Conductor

Dancers

Nina Brindamour
Sarah Slifer Swift

Narrator

Matthew Swift

Lighting Designer

Michael Friedman

Gala Benefit Concert and Dance Performance

$100/person

Saturday, September 2, 7:30pm including food, drink, exceptional views of the Parade of Lights and Fireworks, — and a contribution to the continuing restoration of the Paint Factory Buildings —

EDGE

a multi-media art installation curated by Matthew Swift

Open House and Art Installation

Free and Open to the Public

Meet Ocean Alliance Staff, tour the facilities and new construction underway.
View the art installation inside the former paint factory's industrial spaces.

Saturday and Sunday 10–4, Monday 10–2

September 2–4, 2017

Further information and tickets

www.Gloucester.Center

